Dear Sir, -

As I have - a Peace Jubilee medal, (of civil war time,) - given to me, ^{then} a small girl, as a keepsake; - but which I now want to sell, - if I can get a fair price; and knowing no one who would be likely to prove a purchaser, I wrote to General Pershing; - thinking he would be apt to know of some-one; his reply stated that he did not, - but suggested that I write to you. - can you find a purchaser for my medal? I do not want to sell it unless a good price is given me.

Yours truly
Miss Elizabeth A. Saddle

Dear Madam:

Replying to your favour of September 10th, we cannot tell you whether or not we would be interested in the Peace Jubilee medal, about which you write, as there are a number of varieties.
Could you not send us a rubbing of your piece?

Very truly yours,

Curator
